CONTENTS

Page

CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES OF RESTRUCTURING THE DEVELOPING ESCAP ECONOMIES IN THE 1990s, WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO REGIONAL ECONOMIC COOPERATION
ESCAP secretariat

I. Introduction 1

II. Emerging global challenges and opportunities 2
A. Emerging issues 2
B. Continuing concerns 4

III. Emerging domestic challenges and opportunities 7
A. Domestic impulses to restructure and policy implications 7
B. Domestic policy issues 8
C. Industrial restructuring 9
D. Agricultural restructuring 9
E. Environmental concerns 10

IV. Rationale for regional cooperation 10

V. Institutional arrangements for regional cooperation 14
A. The general scope 14
B. Specific modalities 16

ECONOMIC GROWTH AND STRUCTURAL TRANSFORMATION IN THE ASIAN LEAST DEVELOPED COUNTRIES
ESCAP secretariat

I. Introduction 19
A. Initial development conditions and pertinent external changes 19
B. Growth and transformation process 23
C. Some policy issues 31

PROJECTION IN TURBULENT TIMES 38
Göran Ohlin

MARKET DIVERSIFICATION OF CHINESE OIL EXPORTS IN THE 1980s AND ITS IMPLICATIONS
Larry Chuen-ho Chow

I. Introduction 41
A. Markets for Chinese oil before 1979 42
B. Market diversification since 1979 45
C. Ramifications of market diversification 47
D. Concluding remarks 50

CONTENTS (continued)

Page

SOUTH ASIAN DEBT – A CRITICAL ANALYSIS
N. Janardhan, R.B. Saxena and K.L. Chawla

I. Introduction 52

II. A framework for inter-country comparisons 52
A. Dimensions of comparison 52
B. The framework 53
C. The South Asian realities 55

III. Macro-economic policy constraints 60
IV. A digression 61
V. The emerging policy directions 63
VI. Summary and conclusions 64